My Very Favorite Time of Year is a whimsical tale of the seasons and months of the year and the friendships we share during them. The story teaches children the calendar months and the four seasons, as well as some of the holidays we celebrate throughout the year. It ends with the favorite time of year, not of any particular month or season, but of the time we share with our friends!

My Boy Buster Weidenfeld & Nicolson

In this stirring and captivating story of the heart, Bernard Henry, Jr. explores the nuances of how a man manages to balance the complexities of his life during a crucial and emotional episode. Awaken in the mist of a tragic scenario, a dedicated husband and family man finds himself tormented with the uncertainty of his future, and dwells on his past to guide him through the most staggering and difficult ordeal of his life. Through a man's eyes and heart, we journey to how he overcomes this crippling emotional turmoil with the help of his family and friends, and through reflecting on his life experiences. This story demonstrates the delicate line of strength that men are programmed to display and the tender attributes that are truly the sources of a man's courage. Robert Curtis is in a stable period of his marriage. As most young couples, he and his wife Regina have had some ups and downs as they grow individually and together. The trials of everyday life, family, and professional woes take their toll on their marriage, but they are able to pull it together. Just as life seems calm and their relationship becomes more fulfilling, Regina and their daughter is involved in a horrible car accident. This debut novel illustrates the intricate workings of every relationship and how our connections to family and friends impact our lives greatly. Filled with genuine dialogue, good times and bad, sweet moments and bitter, "For All We Know" is remedy for healing and reveals a heartwarming story told from the ardent joys of a man's heart.

Incident at Devils Den: A True Story, by Terry Lovelace, Esq Balboa Press

In this exciting and atmospheric second entry of this Cold Case Investigation mystery series Detective Lauren Riley is determined to bring the attacker that left her for dead to justice . . . even if it is a fellow police officer. Cold Case Detectives Lauren Riley and her partner Shane Reese are helping the Homicide Squad after a murder earlier in the day left the department short-staffed. As their shift ends, Reese leaves Lauren alone only for her to be savagely beaten and stabbed from behind minutes later. Lauren didn't see her attacker, but knows it was a fellow police officer from the city-issued boots she glimpsed as she passed out. Stolen during the attack is the Murder Book, which contains evidence on all active cold cases. Without the book, old homicides became almost impossible to track down. Who in police headquarters would try to kill a fellow officer? Why'd they suddenly want the Murder Book? Although hurt and on enforced leave, nothing will stop Lauren from seeking answers . . . but who on the force can she trust and how safe is she within her own home?

"Gorgeously inviting illustrations and a joyful theme...the consummate first day read." —Shelf Awareness (starred review) A heartwarming picture book following a group of boys from different backgrounds throughout the school year as they become the best of friends. Musa's feeling nervous about his first day of school. He's not used to being away from home and he doesn't know any of the other kids in his class. And when he meets classmates Moisés, Mo, and Kevin, Musa isn't sure they'll have much in common. But over the course of the year, the four boys learn more about each other, the holidays they celebrate, their favorite foods, and what they like about school. The more they share with each other, the closer they become, until Musa can't imagine any better friends. In this charming story of friendship and celebrating differences, young readers can discover how entering a new friendship with an open mind and sharing parts of yourself brings people together. And the calendar of holidays at the end of the book will delight children as they identify special events they can celebrate with friends throughout the year.

Some teenagers tend to rebel outwardly or inwardly against their parents and their families. They allow peer pressure, raging hormones, or other things to drive a wedge between them and the people who love them the most. On the other hand, many children and teenagers have become victims of abuse by their parents or their families. Through the early years of my life, my mother and other family members tried to destroy me as I was growing up. This is a gripping true story of abuse, hatred, rejection, and near-death experiences.

DISPARATE VOICES (Spectral Sisters Productions Short Play Anthology) contains 25 exiting original short plays (usually in a ten minute format) by local and regional writers from Central Louisiana. Topics range from the sexual orientation of Klu Klux Klan members or Tweedledee and Tweedledum, to steroid use among athletes, with lots of unexpected subjects in-between. Some of the plays will make you laugh, some make you cry, while others make you ponder the universality of the human condition. Each work was accepted and produced in the context of the Spectral Sisters Productions Ten-Minute Play Festival, a developmental theater project going on for over a decade in Alexandria, Louisiana. These short plays, very different in subject matters and writing styles, offer something for the actor, producer, educator, sociologist and, of course, the casual reader to enjoy. While the Heart of Louisiana may not have a reputation for progressive creativity, these works prove that remarkable creativity can be nurtured in the most surprising of locations and yield a dramatic harvest that the whole nation and the entire English-speaking world can enjoy. Please share in our inspiration! Support for DISPARATE VOICES was received through a grant from the Louisiana Division of the Arts in cooperation with the Louisiana State Arts Council as administered by the Arts Council of Central Louisiana.

The absence of fatherhood in America and worldwide is a growing concern because it is affecting our society in so many negative ways. Our children are our greatest resource but too many of them are being neglected and left alone to fend for themselves. Too many fathers have walked away from the most precious gift they will ever have, their children. Until more fathers go back and claim their seed and properly nurture their seed, the value of the next generation will decline. This book is a wake-up call. It is sounding an alarm to those God have given an awesome charge to; train up a child in the way they should go, Proverbs 22:6.
