Studies on Islam and Society in Southeast Asia Faculty of Islamic Contemporary Studies, UniSZA William R. Roff has spent more than forty years studying and writing about the modern history of Islam and Muslims, with special reference to Southeast Asia. With interests primarily in social and intellectual history he has contributed essays during this period to a wide range of learned journals and other publications. The present collection reprints a selection of the most notable of these, from historiographical and methodological studies to the development of Islamic educational and other institutions, the nature of the Arab presence in Southeast Asia, and the social significance of the hajj or pilgrimage to Mecca. The author has been a formative influence on two generations of students and other scholars, and this reissue in accessible form of seminal but scattered essays will be widely welcomed.

Revival and Reform in Islam is at once an intellectual biography of Muhammad al-Shawkani, and a history of a transitional period in Yemeni history. This was a time when a society dominated by traditional Zaydi Shiism shifted to one characterised instead by Sunni reformism. The author traces the origins and outcomes of this transition, presenting the first systematic account of the ways in which the eighteenth- and nineteenth-century reorientation of the Zaydi madhhab, and consequent 'sunnification' of Yemeni society, were intricately linked to tensions within the political realm. In advocating juridical systematization of religious belief and practice, Shawkani espoused a socio-religious order which in its dominant features echoed key aspects of Western modernity. Yet he did so in a context bereft of Western ideational influence. This study then presents a textured account of eighteenth-century Islamic reformist thought and challenges the meaning of modernity in an Islamic context.

Wahai Melayu, ini ialah sebuah riwayat yang menyairkan keagungan yang tidak terganti walaupun seribu zaman. Dari Kedah Tua dan besi-besinya yang menjadi lagu perang, Srivijaya yang menakluk seluruh kepulauan menjadi satu bangsa dan Melaka yang kayanya tidak terbayang dek akal manusia. Hal ini ialah kitab yang merakamkan sebuah keagungan yang menyembah kaki Melayu. Adakah anda sudah lupa tentang bagaimana bangsa kita dipuja oleh penghuni dunia? Dari tempat bersemayam Izanagi, perlahan-lahan berita tentang kita merayap ke Sungai Kuning yang menyimpan seribu legenda raja agung dari kayangan dan juga ketika kita pernah dijulang di bumi Mahabharata yang menjadi latar sebuah cerita para dewa. Tetap harum di tanah Arab tempat lahirnya Nabi akhir zaman dan kisah kita pernah terpasak di tanah para nabi, tempat kononnya Isa disalib. Khabar mengenai kita tetap bersemayam di hujung Eropah, bumi dua anak kembar yang dijaga serigala lalu terbitnya sebuah empayar. Ketika 88 bahasa ditutur di pelabuhan teragung, bahasamu tetap menjadi raja. Kata seorang pendeta Belanda, “Kau bukan seorang intelektual, jika bahasa ini tidak sebatu dengan lidahmu.” Wahai bangsa perang, wahai bangsa pendeta, wahai bangsa diplomat agung, bangkitlah mengembalikan keagungan! This book constitutes a study of Southeast Asia, discussing the Malay world's long historical connection with the Muslim people including the Rumi-Turks, Hadramis and the Ottomans. These connections reflect religious, political and legal cooperations. It also discusses the Ottomans' policy of pan-Islamism and the role of Sultan Abdulhamid II in improving ties with the Malay world and their scholars, rulers and heritage, in the fight against Western colonial powers. In seven essays, the contributors to this book discuss the early religious-intellectual network in the region as well as the evolution of the judicial and political systems.

An exposition of the Prophet Muhammad's teaching that the inner life must pass through three stages: affirmation of faith with the tongue, then the mind, and finally the heart. The Muslim Testimony of Faith, that 'there is no deity save God', is at once the essence and the highest principle of Islam. This book is a demonstration, by one of the greatest recipients of the Prophet's heritage of knowledge, of how the whole spectrum of Islamic thought and worship unfolds naturally from these few words.

The Naqshbandiyya is one of the most widespread and influential Sufi orders in the Muslim world. Having its origins in the Great Masters tradition of Central Asia almost a millennium ago, it played a significant role in the pre-modern history of the Indian subcontinent and the Ottoman Empire, and is still spreading today. This volume seeks to present a broad picture of the evolution of the ideas and organizational forms of the Naqshbandi order throughout its history. It combines a synthesis of the vast literature on the order with original research, and shall be an important contribution for those interested in Sufism, Islamic history and Muslim-Christian relations.

The Holy Qurán is the most widely read book in the history of mankind, a source of immense inspiration, guidance and wisdom for millions of Muslims all over the world. It is the pivotal point of imaan, faith, and integral to the foundations of an Islamic society being the basis of its shariah, Islamic legal injunctions and law. As such one of the aims of Minhaj-ul-Qurán is to ensure a continuous link remains between the body of the Islamic community, the ummah and its heart, the Holy Qurán. It is a book not just to be read, but to be studied, understood and ultimately revered. What is Sufism? UUM Press

Biophoton emission now belongs to a topical field of modern science: It concerns a weak light emision from biological systems. Such molecular events are clearly compatible with collective phenomena as shown by recent developments in the life sciences such as the chaos theory. This book is concerned with the 'optical window' of biological interactions and in view of their correlations to many biological functions they provide a powerful, non-invasive tool of analysing biological systems. Topics include food science, pollution, efficacy of drugs including the treatment of cancer and immune diseases, and communication phenomena such as consciousness.The collection of articles in this book covers the historical background, the physics of biophoton emission, those biological phenomena which show evidence of a 'holistic' character, and finally discusses applications and biological evolution. This volume serves to bring researchers up-to-date on the subject and draws attention to the many exciting findings that are widely scattered in the scientific literature.

Buku ini cuba mengupas persoalan mengenai kedudukan dan perkembangan tasawuf dan tarekat di Tanah Melayu/Malaysia. Tasawuf dan tarekat kini seolah-olah dilihat sebagai sesuatu yang terasing dalam Islam oleh sesetengah pihak. Justeru, melalui buku ini persoalan mengenai tasawuf dan tarekat dibincangkan secara agak menyeluruh berkaitan dengan peristilahan tasawuf dan tarekat serta sejarahnya yang bermula pada zaman Nabi Muhammad SAW, kemudian pada zaman sahabat sehinggalah ke zaman seterusnya. Penulis juga melihat dari aspek kedatangan Islam di Alam Melayu dari sudut peranan golongan sufi dan tarekat. Dalam kajian ini, penulis turut menyentuh secara spesifik tentang kepelbagaian organisasi tarekat yang ada di Malaysia bagi menilai sejauh mana kedudukannya di persada masyarakat serta sumbangan kelompok sufi terhadap pembangunan negara. Secara umumnya penulisan buku ini lebih kepada sejarah dan tradisi kesufian yang terdapat di Malaysia yang penulis anggap sebagai kurang disoroti oleh pengkaji secara amnya. Semoga buku ini dapat memberikan maklumat dan panduan tambahan tentang keberadaan tasawuf dan tarekat di Malaysia, khususnya dari sudut perkembangan dan alirannya.

The golden age of Malay film in the 1950s and 1960s was the product of a musical and cultural cosmopolitanism in the service of a nation-making process based on ideas of Malay ethnonationalism, initially fluid, increasingly homogenised over time. The commercial films of the period, and in particular their film music, from national cultural icons P. Ramlee and Zubir Said, remain important reference points for Malaysia and Singapore to this day. This is the first in-depth study of the film music of the period. It brings together ethnomusicological and cultural studies perspectives. Written in an engaging manner, thoroughly illustrated and incorporating musical scores, the book will appeal to dedicated film fans, musicians, composers and film-makers interested in Southeast Asia and the Malay world. But equally, the conceptual framework will be of interest to a broad range of scholars of Southeast Asia, as it brings together ideas of cosmopolitanism and cultural intimacy to narrate a history of nation-making in the region. Arab Seafaring in the Indian Ocean in Ancient and Early Medieval Times Secret of Secrets Medieval Italy gathers together an unparalleled selection of newly translated primary sources from the central and later Middle Ages, a period during which Italy was famous for its diverse cultural landscape of urban towers and fortified castles, the spirituality of Saints Francis and Clare, and the vernacular poetry of Dante, Petrarch, and Boccaccio. The texts highlight the continuities with the medieval Latin West while simultaneously emphasizing the ways in which Italy was exceptional, particularly for its cities that drove Mediterranean trade, its new communal forms of government, the impact of the papacy's temporal claims on the central peninsula, and the richly textured religious life of the mainland and its islands. A unique feature of this volume is its incorporation of the southern part of the peninsula and Sicily—the glittering Norman court at Palermo, the multicultural emporium of the south, and the kingdoms of Frederick II—into a larger narrative of Italian history. Including Hebrew, Arabic, Greek, and Lombard sources, the documents speak in ethnically and religiously differentiated voices, while providing wider chronological and geographical coverage than previously available. Rich in interdisciplinary texts and organized to enable the reader to focus by specific region, topic, or period, this is a volume that will be an essential resource for anyone with a professional or private interest in the history, religion, literature, politics, and built environment of Italy from ca. 1000 to 1400.

This skillfully written text presents the full sweep of Ottoman history from its beginnings on the Byzantine frontier in about 1300, through its development as an empire, to its late eighteenth-century confrontation with a rapidly modernizing Europe. Itzkowitz delineates the fundamental institutions of the Ottoman state, the major divisions within the society, and the basic ideas on government and social structure. Throughout, Itzkowitz emphasizes the Ottomans' own conception of their historical experience, and in so doing penetrates the surface view provided by the insights of Western observers of the Ottoman world to the core of Ottoman existence.
