This book is a provocative political manual listing 95 theses that are propositions which expose the unconstitutional actions and laws of our federal and state governments with the purpose of drawing attention to pertinent Constitutional issues worth debating. The theses are backed by hundreds of Founding Father quotes as well as a list of a vocabulary from the time period in order to promote a better understanding. The author weaves a compelling, thought-provoking discussion regarding the constitutional role of government as a servant of the people, revealing how both federal and state governments have redefined and even discarded the unchanging U.S. Constitution. The American government today is much like the Catholic Church of 1517. It was then that the spirit of greed, power and idolatry had an iron grip on the Catholic Church and the Catholic Church, in turn, had an iron grip on the people. This had produced an unbiblical fear-based religion. In the midst of this culture of fear and greed, there stepped forth Martin Luther who dared to nail 95 theses to the door of a chapel in Vittenburg, Germany, and in so doing, called the leadership to debate the issues at hand. He did not call for the people to revolt or defect from the Catholic Church but rather, for a reformation of the church that existed. Even as Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses to declare the Catholic Church's wrongs, the author of 95 Theses Project: Let's Save Our Constitution declares that both the federal and state governments in the spirit of greed and power rule over America with unconstitutional, tyrannical, fear-based laws. With this book you will have an easy tool to use as we teach the ill-informed the truth about our Constitution. You will be armed with the Constitution, the Declaration of Independence, quotes of the Founders and a list of grievances against our present-day government. Through your new weapon's telescopic, intelligence lenses you will clearly see what the Founding Fathers intended and have the knowledgeable ammunition to battle against our present-day government for our Constitutional freedoms and for our Constitution. We the People must become more passionate about saving our freedoms. We must shout out the truth about the tyranny. We must stir up a storm! We must awaken the masses of the ill-informed. This book will make all of us more effective in our efforts. Website: letssaveourconstitution.com Website: 2020tornasunder.com

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • The award-winning book that inspired an Apple Original series from Apple TV+ • A landmark investigation of patient deaths at a New Orleans hospital ravaged by Hurricane Katrina—and the suspenseful portrayal of the quest for truth and justice—from a Pulitzer Prize-winning physician and reporter “An amazing tale, as inexorable as a Greek tragedy and as gripping as a whodunit.”—Dallas Morning News After Hurricane Katrina struck and power failed, amid rising floodwaters and heat, exhausted staff at Memorial Medical Center designated certain patients last for rescue. Months later, a doctor and two nurses were arrested and accused of injecting some of those patients with life-ending drugs. Five Days at Memorial, the culmination of six years of reporting by Pulitzer Prize winner Sheri Fink, unspools the mystery, bringing us inside a hospital fighting for its life and into the most charged questions in health care: which patients should be prioritized, and can health care professionals ever be excused for hastening death? Transforming our understanding of human nature in crisis, Five Days at Memorial exposes the hidden dilemmas of end-of-life care and reveals how ill-prepared we are for large-scale disasters—and how we can do better.
