The Book Of

Remembrances [Kitab
al-Adhkar] - By Imam

Yahya ibn Sharaf an-
Nawawi Kitab al-

Adhkar is the definitive compilation of words of remembrance and

glorification of (dhikr),
and supplicatory

prayer to (du'a), the Lord of the Universe,

as related from His
final Emissary, the

Prophet Muhammad
(may Allah bless and exalt him). Dhikr and

du'a lie at the very

heart of the din, the relationship between

creature and Creator.
As part of the Sunna or

Prophetic Way, they are a divinely

appointed means of

approaching Allah Most High for all our needs,
and of making use of
all the moments of
daily life to strengthen our tawhid, the
existential and
cognitive Unity that is the hallmark of Muslim spirituality. Also covered are the vital
principles of speaking
only what is good and
avoiding the sins of the tongue. The author,
Muhy al-Din Yahya ibn
Sharaf al-Nawawi
(631-676/123-1277)
devoted his entire life
to the pursuit of sacred knowledge. He is revered throughout the Sunni world as one of its greatest authorities.
Among his most famous writings are the Arba'in, a collection of forty Hadiths; a commentary
on the Sahih of Imam Muslim; and Kitab al-Adhkar. Designed as a reference guide and a source of inspiration, this volume presents a clear and elegant English translation of Imam al-Nawawis classic, together with the text of every single prayer and invocation, both in Arabic letters and in romanisation. Also included are all the authors statements about those Hadiths which he related personally from his own teachers, and his guidance on the correct spelling and meanings of rare words and names. Finally, al-Nawawi's comments on the sources of Hadiths are supplemented by further scholarly notes. The Life of Ibn Sina and this book consists of prayers categorized according to various occasions: morning and evening prayers connected with prufuication, food, drink, pilgrimage, marriage, everyday life situations. Additional sections include the most beatiful names of God, prayer for help and victory, and other prayers to be read at any time.

Here, Thierry Zarccone and Angela Hobart offer a vigorous and authoritative exploration of the link between Islam and shamanism in contemporary Muslim culture, examining how the old practice of shamanism was combined with elements of Sufism in order to adapt to wider Islamic society. Shamanism and Islam thus surveys shamanic practices in Central Asia, the Middle East, North Africa and the Balkans, to show how the Muslim shaman, like his Siberian counterpart, cultivated personal relations with spirits to help individuals through healing and divination. It explores the complexities and variety of rituals, involving music, dance and, in some regions, epic and bardic poetry, demonstrating the close links between shamanism and the various arts of the Islamic world. This is the first in-depth exploration of 'Islamized shamanism', and is a valuable contribution to the field of Islamic Studies, Religion, Anthropology, and an understanding of the Middle East more widely.

Each of the fourteen chapters comprising this book treats at least one of the major themes that are characteristic of this youngest religiously-based civilisation of the world. The author's thematic approach is primarily meant to promote a better appreciation of the living nature of Islamic civilisation. The book's content provides ample evidence that Islamic civilisation is not merely a passing historical phenomenon. The various themes it discusses clearly demonstrate the continuing relevance of Islamic civilisation to the present and future humanity.

Enter the Mysterious World of Ruqyah! Dealing with how evil entities and evil forces affect the physical world is often a confusing subject ... sometimes even too scary a subject to discuss. Ruqyah comprises many healing techniques that have been practised long before the first verse of the Qur'an was even revealed, however the discipline is still underdeveloped, causing confusion and leaving no clear path set for the future. This book splits the discipline of ruqyah into seven distinct levels along with a taste of achievements to date. Some of the achievements already surpass the efficacy of conventional medicine!

The clear and explicitly set-out foundation creates a solid framework for deeper research and development in order to explore, document and produce the endless possibilities of ruqyah miracles.

Praying for health is a significant Islamic custom alongside seeking medical treatment, and has become a vital part of Muslim culture. There are two areas of focus in this book: the methodology and criteria of praying for health, and the results of a study on the effect of prayer on Muslim patients' well-being. This study was conducted at Brigham and Women's Hospital, a Harvard Medical School teaching affiliate in Boston, MA. Twenty-Five Remedies, a work by prominent contemporary Muslim scholar Said Nursi, included in this book, further enriches the scope of the subject of prayer and healing.

Muhammad Messenger of Allah Bloomsbury Publishing

In the name of Allah, the Most Merciful and Most Compassionate. Praise to the One Who completed this religion and sent guidance through His Messenger salAllahu 'alayhi wa sallam. To begin: Every so often our daily lives preoccupy us and turn us away from Allah's promise. When we walk out of our homes, turn on the radio, TV, or Internet, we are distracted by the evils we see and hear. As result of immorality and unashamed disobedience, our hearts grow hard and distant from Allah and His Messenger's call. We know the message of Islam is true, but we are weak due to the rigidity of our heart, spirit and mind. In times like these, we need something to penetrate that stiffness. We need a remedy to soften that hardness and the inflexibility of our choices. Disunity and harshness afflicts this Ummah today. Consequently, many people have turned away from brotherhood, caring, and even Islam itself. Their hearts have transformed into dwellings of complete hatred for a sinner, disdain toward the weak Muslim, and jealousy of their successful brother or sister. I have selected some ahaadeeth from the most authentic book after the Qur'aan to soften the hearts in our chests. I used Shaykh Muhammad ibn Saalih Al-'Uthaymeen's explanations for the ahaadeeth selected. The ahaadeeth selected come from a book in Imam Al-Bukhari's collection titled Riqaq: Heart Softeners. This chapter brings tears to one's eyes, fear to one's mind, and most importantly it diminishes the rigidity in one's heart. I ask Allah to make the translation and compilation solely for His pleasure. I pray to Allah for acceptance of this deed and His mercy in the Hereafter. Abu Aaliyah Abdullah ibn Dwight in one sitting. This may be performed once or twice a day, in the latter case once in the morning and once in the evening. This dua is best cure for magic and evil effects. This dua is so powerful for removing every kind of sickness. In the tradition of Prophet Muhammad SAW, he was himself once targeted by sorcerers, but he annulled their effect through the recitation of the verses of the Qur'an.

According to various traditions, different parts of the Qur'an are described to have a positive effect on an individual in terms of negating and preventing the effects of witchcraft, or for general well-being and becoming a better practicing Muslim. Eminent Muslim scholar of the India-Pakistan sub-continent Maulana Mohammad Zakariya Ra and Allama Shah Waliullah Dahlawi collected these verses in book form, which were already in use in his family as an antidote to witchcraft. This collection is popularly referred to as Manzil. Manzil is a collection of Ayaat and short Surahs from the Quran that are to be recited as a means of protection and antidote - Ruqya from Black Magic, Jinn, Witchcraft, Sihr, Sorcery, Evil Eye and the like as well as other harmful thing. The Power of Dua (to Allah) Al-Burāq Ruqya is the practice of treating afflictions through the recitation of the Qur'an and supplications from the Sunnah. This Ruqya Handbook is an empowering guide for those seeking to learn more about Ruqya as it is one of the recommended Sunnah to perform on oneself and on others. In 1932, the eminent British scholar of Islam, Sir Hamilton Gibb, wrote: "The nobility and broad tolerance of this religion [Islam], which accepted all the real religions of the world as God-inspired, will always be a glorious heritage for mankind. No other society has such a record of success in uniting, in an equality of status, of opportunity, and of endeavor, so many and so various races of humanity." (Whither Islam?) Such scholarly objectivity towards the tolerance which has historically characterized the Islamic tradition as a whole is in short supply these days. Through an insidious symbiosis of fanatical Muslims and prejudiced Islamophobes, the very opposite image of Islam has emerged as one of the most dangerous stereotypes of our times. The most cursory glance at history will not only reveal the falsity of this stereotype of an intolerant Islam, it will also reveal the little known fact that, not so long ago, it was the Islamic world that provided models of tolerant conduct for a fanatically intolerant Christian world tearing itself apart over dogmatic differences. The first part of this monograph examines the historical record of tolerance in the Islamic tradition, illustrating the expression of the principle of tolerance through the rule of such dynasties as the Ottomans, Mughals, Fatimids, and the Umayyads of Spain. In the second, the principle of tolerance is shown to be rooted in the spirit of the Qur'anic revelation and embodied in the exemplary conduct of the Prophet.
