fingernails on the chalkboard when someone makes the scriptures say whatever they want them to say when God meant something completely different. So many people take the scriptures out of context to fit their beliefs instead of the other way around. We can't pick and choose which scriptures we like and leave the rest. If God didn't want us to know certain things, He wouldn't have put them in the Bible. Deuteronomy 29:29 says, "The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law." Neighbors has found the scriptures being twisted just a bit in every church he's attended and even visited. For instance, most churches teach the misconception that the Ten Commandments are still alive and active. The scriptures tell a very different story. Galatians 3:13 says, "Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law." Galatians 2:21 says, "I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain." The full story is mapped out in chapter 1. This book is intended to help you correct many misconceptions about so many scriptures that are taken out of context.

Poverty is a curse of the law. It is not palatable nor is it desirable because of its terrible effects. Jesus Christ, by redemption, has redeemed us from the curse of the law so that the blessings of Abraham might come unto the Gentiles by faith.

Prosperity is the will of God for man and it is expected to be overflowing and ever-flowing. This book explains the pains of poverty and the pleasure and purpose of prosperity. It explains how to access God's true riches through covenant walk and tested principles. It is your turn to enjoy overflowing prosperity.

He told me about the present state of the Church, His Body and lamented over it stating thus: "the people I	called and sent out as overseers to shepherd My Sheep, to feed and care for their spiritual and physical welfare, have left their august assignment for the basal appetite of their bellies". He continued, by exposing to me the woeful state of "merchandise" going on in the entire Christendom today; all in His Name. He said: "ENOUGH IS ENOUGH"! that His People have been used as stock in trade	and drained enough in ignorance and their contributions meant for the poor and needy in their midst have been misused and directed to service the basal appetite of those leading them, the Church and the world system. They dragged the people of God to the practice of the Old Temple worship, rites and ceremonies of the dispensation of the Law in this dispensation of Grace; thus,

they have made ineffective the work done by Christ on the cross of Calvary to redeem us from the curse of the Law being made a curse for our sake. The scripture in Galatians 3:11-13 states thus: But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. Christ hath redeemed us	from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: Gal 3:11-13 KJV This book therefore exposes the contrasting differences between the articles of the dispensation of the Law and that of Grace. Brethren insist on practicing tithing and the giving of offerings to their Churches as a way of receiving blessings from God unknown	to them that their blessings indeed come when they care for the needs of the poor and the destitute in their midst. We are faced with the truth that the old order of Temple worship is dead and God has replaced it with a new and living way that takes us by the blood of Jesus Christ, through the Veil into the very presence of God where the Law could never take us. The new order of giving therefore should be to ourselves

being the true temple of the living God in this dispensation of Grace. Besides through Christ Jesus we have been made Priest and Kings of The Most High God after the order of Melchisedek. The old order demands for one-tenth of what a man has but the new order which is a higher order request for all that we possess. In this dispensation of Grace, our possessions belong to God.

We are only God's Caretakers. As slaves of Christ we own nothing because we have been bought with a price, the price of the blood of Jesus Christ. The scripture in 1 Corinthians 6:19-20 reveals thus: What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Cor 6:19-20 KJV In this dispensation, we are meant to be led by the Spirit of God on how to dispense the resources under our care. Although the issue of Tithe began at the time of Abraham when he consulted with Melchisedec who was the king of Salem and the Priest of the Most High God and paid a tenth of his spoils to him after he won the battle with some kings to deliver his brother Lot, it became statutory that is entrenched into the Law of Moses thus it is of the Law and not of Grace. Jesus Christ in Matthew 23:23 No More Tithes and Offerings But Must Give to the Poor, Needy and Destitute Book 2 The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints This book teaches what every Christian, as a child of God, should believe and how every Christian, as a child of God, should live. The word "catechism" means instruction. This little book instructs in such a short and simple manner that even a child can easily understand. Dr. Martin Luther, the great Reformer of the Church, published this book to benefit the adults and the children who are most in need of such teaching. Luther doesn't write his own views and principles but the words of God for the betterment of humans. It does not teach all the doctrines of God's Word, but those that every Christian must know to believe rightly and lead a religious life in a short form, using plain and straightforward words. Gold from Ophir Destiny Image Publishers Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. Galatians 3: 13 Is there really such thing as a curse? Isn't that witchcraft or something? If we are under the Blood we are no longer under the curse; so isn't that all we need to know as Christians? Is there some evil force hiding in the closet that plays any part in our ability to serve freely the LORD Jesus?

Salvation is more than just being saved from sin. Salvation is being saved to the glory of God. We were created in the likeness and the image of God, and it is His desire for us to be crowned with His glory and honor. The Blood and the Glory reveals how the power of the Blood of Jesus and the glory of God fit together in God's plan of redemption. This exciting book draws from the experiences of great leaders of faith from the past to rekindle the power of the Blood of Jesus in the Church today. Combining personal stories with strong biblical principles, Billye Brim teaches the importance of depending upon the Blood of Jesus in your daily walk with God. You will understand as never before that without the Blood of Jesus, it is impossible to be prepared for the glory of God. By using the principles outlined in this book you will learn: How to use the Blood of Jesus to overcome the enemy How to use the Blood of Jesus to protect your family How to draw a blood line around your property and possessions How to maintain victory through the Blood of Jesus How the Blood of Jesus is connected to the outpourings of the Holy Spirit. We are in the last days. The circle of glory is almost complete. It is through the Blood of Jesus that we can be redeemed to our rightful place of glory and honor in the kingdom of God. Songs of Redemption and Praise Christian Faith Publishing, Inc. According to these, empires will fall, the "Beast" will be destroyed and Christ will rule a new Jerusalem. With an introduction by Will Self. The Word of Life: Being Selections from the Work of the Ministry Lifestv Publishing, Inc. God has given to His Son, Jesus Christ, a people of His own choosing, not according to anything they have done, but solely according to the will and purpose of God. The purpose in them being given to the Son is salvation. Christ would die for these, and these alone, and give unto them eternal life. These are the only people Jesus Christ has made atonement for; The only ones He became a curse for upon the Tree; The only ones whose sins were imputed to Christ and Whose Righteousness was/will be imputed to them. These are the same people who will be presented to the Father in a blessed state. All others were not given to the Son; they are not among those to whom Christ will give eternal life and therefore could not have been among those for whom He died and become a curse for on the Tree. They are not among those blessed of the Father, for they are declared 'cursed' on Judgement

Day.

John Goodwin (1593-1665), the eminent Puritan Arminian divine, was a man ahead of his time who lived in a turbulent era in which many principals, both theological and governmental, were subjects of controversy. This new edition of Redemption Redeemed (originally published in 1651), provides a major refutation of the Calvinistic limited atonement doctrine. Goodwin has written an adversarial treatise in which he, step by step, examines the overwhelming scriptural and theological evidence supporting the idea that Christ died for all mankind.

He also refutes the opposing arguments of his day and argues that God, through his grace, provides the opportunity for all people to be saved. The Methodist Quarterly Review noted: "Had Redemption Redeemed been his only publication, it should have been enough in itself to perpetuate his (Goodwin's) fame. Its great learning, clear reasoning, sound judgment, and admirable spirit, render it worthy of the study of the lovers of this glorious doctrine, and the name of its author is one which all Arminians should delight to honor. A volume so ably written, and going to the bottom of the controversy, could not in that polemical age fail to create a storm." In the contemporary period, as Christians enter the 21st Century and Calvinism with its disturbing implications is making a resurgence, Goodwin's masterful work is a welcome and much needed contribution to those seeking to understand the truths of God's word. The Family Expositor A Study Guide and a Teacher's Manual Gospel Principles was written both as a personal study guide and as a teacher's manual.
